Preface

IN the third Report of the Historical Manuscripts Commission (1872), p. xviii, it is stated: " Sir Charles Isham's collection (p. 252) is rich in Heralds Visitations (originals and copies) for the counties of Berks, Bucks, Leicester, and Northampton, by W. Harvey, Sampson Lennard, Richard Lee, Augustine Vincent, and Gregory King. One of the volumes is by Ralph Brooke."

The Lamport Library became famous for its treasures of Shakespeare and other unique and rare books. Sir Justinian Isham, the second baronet (d. 1675), a scholarly man, elected Fellow of the Royal Society in 1663, was the chief collector of these rarities. His grandson, another Sir Justinian, the fifth baronet, was an interesting diarist, and a careful genealogist (see Royal Hist. Soc. Transactions, 3rd series, i, 181). Sir Edmund Isham, brother of the last, a Judge of the Admiralty Court, 1731–1741, was Assessor-General to the Deputy Earl Marshal, and as such is seen in a picture now at the College of Arms. There are three Visitations of Northamptonshire. The first two, of 1564 and 1618–9, were edited in 1887 by Walter C. Metcalfe, F.S.A. The third and last Visitation, which includes the County of Rutland, is known as K1 at the College of Arms. There is, however, a contemporary copy in the Library at Lamport. This is in the original binding and is entitled " Visitat. of North'ton shire 1681," and does not include the County of Rutland. It has an Index.

Annotations by the Editor are given in italics.

A pathetic interest attaches to the present work. Just three weeks before his death in November 1916, my friend, the Rev. R. M. Serjeantson, F.S.A., rector of St. Peter's, Northampton, wrote his last letter to me, telling of a visit from his old friend, Mr. Everard Green, Somerset Herald. In discussing this Visitation for 1681, Mr. Green had asked whether I should be willing to do the work. The volume, now completed, is a grateful remembrance of an old and valued friend and fellow-worker

HENRY ISHAM LONGDEN.
